

Interreligious Connectivity – Digitally Explored

Wednesday, 17.4.2024

University Copenhagen, Søndre Campus

Karen Blixens Plads 8, 2300 Copenhagen S.

Room 4A.0.56

Jacob Langeloh: +49 178 583 42 81

Jan Loop: +45 91 46 57 49

08:15-08:45 Check-in, Coffee

08:45-09:00 Jan Loop, Jacob Langeloh: Opening Remarks

09:00-10:15 Presentation Session (chair: N.N.)

Martijn Naaijer (Copenhagen)

Studying Religious Interconnectivity Using Annotated Textual Datasets

Susanna Fischer (Freiburg)

On the Performative Nature of Digital Texts: New Ways of Editing Latin Travel Narratives

Süphan Kirmizialtin and David J. Wrisley (Abu Dhabi)

Interreligious Encounters in the Persina Gulf: A Digital Exploration of Manumission Documents

10:15-10:45 Coffee-break

10:45-11:45 Discussion Session (chair: N.N.)

Florence Ninitte (Nantes)

The Fortleben of the Risālat al-Kindī as a Case Study of Textual Connectivity in Medieval Western Literature – Which Perspectives for Digital Analysis?

Alessandro Gori (Copenhagen)

Connected Qur'anic and Biblical Quotations in the Ethiopian Christian Literatures on Islam: A Contribution to a Database of Linked Scriptural Passages

11:45-13:30 Lunch and break

13:30-14:45 Keynote Lecture

Mikko Tolonen (Helsinki)

Too Many Stories to Tell? Studying Re-use and Semantic Similarity with Computational Means

15:00-17:45 Hands-on I

Ariane Pinche, Olivier Brisville-Fertin (Lyon):

The Better Alternative? Handwritten Text Recognition (HTR) with eScriptorium

ca. 18:30 Dinner at Kulturhuset Islands Brygge, Islands Brygge 18, 2300 København

Thursday, 18.4.2024

08:30-09:00 Coffee

09:00-10:15 Presentation Session (chair: N.N.)

Mouhamadou-Khaly Wélé (Lyon)

Digitizing Complex Historical Sources: An Overview of DH Tools Used in the NOTCOM and Quran12-21 Projects

David J. Wrisley (Abu Dhabi)

Modeling Connectivity in Fifteenth and Sixteenth Century European Travel Narratives

Jacob Langeloh (Copenhagen):

Exploring the Network of Christian-Islamic Polemics: Insights and Learnings from the OTRA Project

10:15-10:45 Coffee-break

10:45-11:45 Discussion Session (chair: N.N.)

Ulisse Cecini (Barcelona)

Dominicus Germanus de Silesia's Online Edition

Manolis Ulbricht (Notre Dame):

Building Shared Conceptions of Interconnectivity in Byzantine Anti-Islamic Polemics and Greek Qur'anic Translations. A Discussion Draft for an Interdisciplinary Categorization of Thematic and Philological Topics in Christian Islam-Related and Heresiographical Texts

11:45-13:30 Lunch and break

13:30-14:45 Keynote Lecture

Monica Berti (Leipzig)

The Dream of Linked Humanities: Experiences, Infrastructures, Challenges

15:00-17:30 Hands-on II:

Antonio Rojas Castro (Berlin), José Calvo Tello (Göttingen)

Make It Pretty: Publishing TEI-XML Editions on the Web

ca. 18:00 Dinner at Høst, Nørre Farimagsgade 41, 1364 København

Friday, 19.4.2024

08:30-08:45 Coffee

08:45-10:15 Connectathlon, Phase 1

10:15-10:45 Coffee-break

10:45-12:45 Connectathlon, Phase 2

12:45-14:00 Presentations, Discussion, Goodbye